Culture and networking biggest reward of Global Final week 2017!

After a spectacular week full of cultural interaction, networking, teamwork & team building, and of course international competition at the highest level, the Award Ceremony was the highlight to top off the Global Final Week 2017. Meticulous Medley from the University of Glasgow, Scotland convincingly claimed the championship title of this year's Global Student Challenge. The Scottish team that won the Regional Final in the UK in March to claim their spot in the Top 21 had an outstanding performance throughout the 6 rounds of the Global Final and was awarded this year's crown and €10,000 in cash!

Team LyVuLaQu from Foreign Trade University Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam took the second place earning €6,000 in cash. The third place almost ended up in a tie but in the end team NSTUstudents from Novosibirsk State Technical University, Russia was the one to step onto the podium earning €4,000 in cash.

The Global Final week allowed students and teachers from 19 countries, and 26 nationalities to interact with each other, share their culture and take back to their countries unforgettable experiences that last a lifetime. Student activities, workshops for teachers, a field trip to the highly advanced harbour of Rotterdam and much more was part of this year's Global Final week at Windesheim University of Applied Sciences in The Netherlands. Photos and videos of this amazing week can be found on the Global Student Challenge Facebook page. The Supply Chain Finance Community published an article on SCF Briefing about the Global Final week.

The Global Student Challenge will kick-off again towards the end of the summer with a completely new set-up. Students can already reserve a spot by selecting to pre-register for the 2017/2018 edition.

In cooperation with the Holland Logistics Library (HLL) a teaser version of The Cool Connection, will be launched shortly. Anyone who wants to know more about Supply Chain Management and Supply Chain Finance, will have the opportunity to experience the teaser game. It quickly provides an understanding of the interdependencies and constraints companies deal with in their supply chains by means of 4 dilemmas. It is a great way to quickly get familiar with this hot topic in the business world.

Finally, we are proud to announce that The Talent Connection (TTC) together with top corporations Amgen and KPMG is working on launching a 2-year traineeship program in the second half of this year. Talents that have an outstanding profile in the TTC recruitment platform will be selected and invited to The Netherlands for extensive assessment before being recruited. More news will follow in the coming period so stay tuned.
